

THE TRI-WEEKLY YEOMAN.

AUTUMN LEAVES.

BY CHARLES DICKENS.

Autumn leaves, Autumn leaves, lie strewn
around me here;
Autumn leaves, Autumn leaves, how sad, how
cold, how drear!
How like the hopes of childhood's day, Thick clustering on the bough!
How like those hopes in their decay,
How faded are they now!
Autumn leaves, Autumn leaves, lie strewn
around me here;
Autumn leaves, Autumn leaves, how sad, how
cold, how drear!

Withered leaves, withered leaves, that fly before the gale;
Withered leaves, withered leaves, ye tell a mournful tale;
Of love once true, and friends once kind,
And happy moments fled;
Dispersed by every breath of wind, Forgotten, changed, or dead!
Autumn leaves, Autumn leaves, lie strewn
around me here;
Autumn leaves, Autumn leaves, how sad, how
cold, how drear!

Foreign Mail Charges.

(From the Cincinnati Post-Office Bulletin.)

The following are the rates of postage (international and foreign) chargeable on correspondence from the United States for Adu, Note 1. The postage rates on packages of man Postal Convention, the full rates on Storing Winter Apples.

A correspondent of Laws of Life, who claims to have extended experience, is decidedly of the opinion "that apples keep far better when put into close boxes or barrels, and sealed as much as possible from the air. When thus stored, he says, they will come out in the spring, full and plump as when taken from the tree. Many varieties, as the Talisman Sweet, Spitzenberg, and those kinds that are not considered as long keepers, and shrivelled badly, will do well treated in this way. I have, he continues, found unreasonably that kept better to let them lie without picking over. It is much better to pile them into a large bin across the cellar, say six or seven feet wide, and cover them up tight, than to lay them on shelves. I once saw such a bin that a man had kept through the winter. About the first of April, he thought he would open the window on the side of the cellar next to the bin to let in the air, that they might keep better. I was at his place and he called my attention to the fact. Two windows over the bin were opened about ten days or two weeks, and the apples exactly opposite the windows, about one-third, rotted for as much as a foot in depth, and the remaining part on either side were not rotted at all. Another instance: A neighbor of mine had about five hundred bushels in a pile in a cellar. As they became a little speckled he commenced picking them over; when about half done he got tired and concluded to let them go. When marketed about six weeks after, he found that one third of those picked over were not fit for market, while all but one twentieth of the other was good. This I have seen in numerous instances. If you wish to try the experiment, make a box as tight as a cigar case can make it, and when packing from the orchard, fill it and nail it fast. Let it lie in the orchard till it is in danger of freezing; then put it in the cellar. Put the same quantity on the shelves for trial. I am pretty sure one experiment will convince.

PAIDORS or VODOONISM.—The introduction of schools among the colored negroes in the South has not had the effect of checking the popular belief in Vodooism, which, on the contrary, is spreading to regions where it was formerly unknown. One reason of this is the removal of all restrictions as to travel, thus permitting the agents of the superstitious to roam about in all directions. Any old rough-looking negro with a bag of lizard heads, old bones, and other trapezoidal to excite the African imagination, can tramp from one plantation to another, living on the best the country affords, without troubling himself about work at all.
The negroes will all fear him, and they will many of them be ready to pay him liberally for exerting his supernatural powers in their behalf. Some of these fellows are very cunning.

PASTRY.—The flour for pastry should be of the whitest and finest quality. It should be mixed with a broad knife, as the moisture and warmth of the hand make it heavy. The butter should be of the best quality, as if it is a little rancid it will taste. To make puff paste it should have all the salt washed out of it. Iron hook tin plates are the best for making pastry. Always use cold water (in summer ice-water) to mix pastry, and if it cannot be baked immediately, set it away in a cool place.

HEAVY.—Tuesday on the adjournment of the court of claims, we gathered together Squire James Howell, Thomas Duncan, and R. M. Park, the three heaviest justices on the bench, and weighed them. Squire Duncan drew down 253 lbs.; Squire Howell 254, and Squire Park 211 pounds, making an aggregate of 721 pounds.—Elizabethtown News.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—A sacramental meeting, to continue several days, will be commenced at Cherry Spring Church, Newtown, next Saturday. Preaching every day at 11 o'clock.
A. M., and 6 P. M. The Rev. J. H. Fitzgerald, late of Virginia, will aid in the meeting.
Georgetown Times.

A true religious instinct never deprived a man of one single joy.
